Definitions

- Product/Item: is the product created by ThemeSelection that comes with HTML, CSS, JS, and other source code files available to the Person after purchasing any of our licenses.
- End Product is any artifact (website, software, web app, mobile app) produced that incorporates the Item or derivatives of the Item.
- End-User: is a user of an End Product. End users can be unlimited for any license.
- Client: is an individual or company that receives custom services directly from the Person, produced specifically for that individual or company.

License Period

A License is for a lifetime. That means, once you buy it, you can use the Item forever within the restrictions described in this document.

Note to freelancers and creative agencies:

Under the Single License, you may charge your clients for your services. But you can't use one of our Single Licenses on multiple clients or jobs. Please purchase a valid license as per your client's requirements.

Single License

Use for the single end product which end users can't be charged for.

- That means you will be able to use our product for yourself or your client's project for one time only which end users can't be charged for.
- For each new project, you need to purchase a separate Single License or consider a Multi-License.
- 12 months of Premium Support and Free Updates are included. After this period you can renew/extend your license in order to get Premium Support and Updates.

Here is what you can and can't do with a Single License.

Can

- You can use our product for single projects for which end users are not charged.
- You can modify our product as per your needs and use it for your personal or client project.
- You can White Label your personal or client project.
- You can list the project that you build with our products on your site/portfolio.

Can't

- You cannot use it for Multiple projects.
- You cannot create a SaaS application and sell that.
- You cannot use it for any application/service/product for which the end-user can be charged.
- You cannot resell, redistribute, lease, license, or offer the product as it is to any third party.

Multiple License

Use for the unlimited end product which end users can't be charged for.

- That means you will be able to use our product for yourself as well as your client projects multiple times which end users can't be charged for.
- 12 months of Premium Support and Free Updates are included. After this period you can renew/extend your license in order to get Premium Support and Updates.

Here is what you can and can't do with Multiple Licenses.

Can

Freebies License

All our free items are Open Source and licensed under MIT. You can use our free items for personal as well as commercial purposes. We just need an attribution from your end.

Why attribution?

Crafting Coded Dashboard Templates & UI Kits takes a lot of time and effort, which is why we ask you to provide a link to attribute the source.

How to attribute?

Copy the below link and paste it at the footer of your web application or project.

```
ThemeSelection

I don't want to give attribution

If you don't want to give attribution then please upgrade to the PRO version of the template. As a result, you will be able to help us grow and motivate us 😊 to create more awesome products 🚀.

By purchasing the PRO version you are allowed to white label (No attribution required) the template.
